2019 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A LAWYER

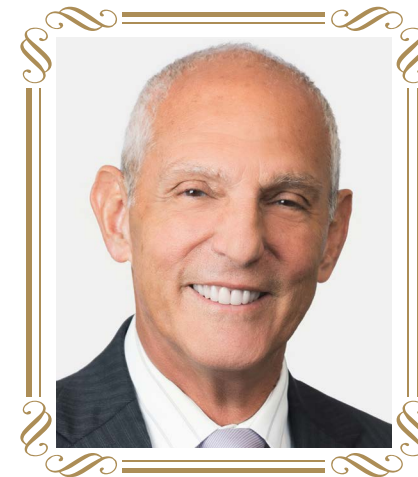

MICHAEL A. BEDKE
DLA PIPER

Michael A. Bedke, a real estate partner in the DLA Piper Tampa office, is being honored for his exceptional dedication to providing pro bono service, his remarkable advocacy for AIDS patients and domestic violence survivors, his invaluable support developing the No Place Like Home program and his commitment to improving the lives of veterans, disaster survivors and law students. As a young lawyer, Bedke accepted pro bono cases representing persons with AIDS in the 1980s, a time when the general public was both fearful and uneducated about the disease. He encouraged colleagues to take similar cases and served on the board of the Tampa AIDS Network. After Hurricane Andrew, Bedke worked to pass Good Samaritan legislation that removed an impediment to lawyers providing pro bono help to disaster survivors. He also led legal relief efforts in response to the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building and September 11. He founded the Greater Access and Assistance Project while chair of the ABA's YLD, modeling it after the Courthouse Assistance Project he created as a board member of Bay Area Legal Services (BALS). Bedke has worked on behalf of domestic violence survivors for more than 25 years. He was appointed to the National Advisory Committee on Violence Against Women in 2002 and worked with the Women's Caucus of the Peruvian Parliament to draft model domestic violence legislation. At his alma mater, the University of Florida, he developed a program to recruit and retain minority law students. As president of the board of BALS in 2015, Bedke spearheaded a fundraising effort that created a $400,000 endowment for a veterans program. He also led the development and implementation of the No Place Like Home Project, which provides pro bono help to low-income homeowners experiencing title issues.

2019 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A LAWYER

RICHARD C. MILSTEIN
AKERMAN LLP

Richard C. Milstein, a partner in Akerman's Miami office, will receive the Medal of Honor for his exemplary and unending capacity for pro bono work as a volunteer guardian ad litem for more than 35 years, his leadership and advocacy for marriage equality and civil rights, and his efforts to enact legislation to protect minors in the dependency system. Just months after being admitted to the Bar in 1974, Milstein was appointed to his first pro bono case by a judge. This led to more cases, and before the concept of ad litem had even been formulated, Milstein was volunteering his time protecting children during divorces. In 1986, he oversaw a case involving the misappropriation of a minor's funds in guardianship. After recovering a considerable sum for the child, he worked to draft and enact legislation to protect the interests of children in the same situation. Milstein was the pro bono guardian ad litem in a highly-publicized case in 2000 in which a three-year-old had been beaten into a coma, and he was charged with advising the court on whether the child should be removed from life support. He has represented children during contentious custody battles and helped children achieve permanent reunification after foster care. Milstein's involvement in civil rights extended to his personal life when, in 2014, he and his husband, who had married in Iowa in 2010, challenged Florida's ban on same-sex marriage. The lawsuit ultimately resulted in marriage equality statewide a year later. In 2016, in another high profile case, Milstein served as a guardian ad litem for a transgender teen who wanted to change the name and gender marker on his birth certificate. The decision set a precedent for transgender teens in Florida, who can now amend their birth certificate's gender markers. Milstein has served as president of the Dade County Bar and received the Florida Supreme Court's Tobias Simon Pro Bono Service Award in 1996.

JANE ELIZABETH CURRAN
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

JACKIE DOWD
IDIGNITY

Jackie Dowd is the managing attorney of Legal Advocacy at Work, a nonprofit poverty and social justice law firm, and she serves as legal counsel for Orlando-based IDignity. After working as a journalist, she enrolled in law school at the University of Florida in her 30s. She graduated with honors and began her career as a lawyer representing General Motors. She then moved to the Florida Attorney General's office where she eventually became the supervisor of the Orlando Economic Crimes Unit. In 2004, Jackie served as managing attorney of Community Legal Services of Mid-Florida. In 2005, as acting director of clinical programs at Florida A&M University College of Law, she established the school's Homelessness and Legal Advocacy Clinic. Shortly after, she represented the group Food Not Bombs as an ACLU cooperating attorney, arguing for the right to feed the poor and homeless in an Orlando city park. In 2006, Jackie founded her nonprofit firm to handle cases relating to collections, evictions, family law, public benefits and employment law for poor and homeless individuals and families. A year later, she played an instrumental part in the founding of IDignity, which helps homeless and low-income individuals obtain identification. As IDignity's legal counsel, she helps clients who are having difficulty getting birth certificates, marriage records, social security records, immigration records and other documents needed to obtain a Florida ID. IDignity has served more than 19,000 individuals, many of whom Jackie has met in the woods and in shelters to provide services.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

STEPHEN R. SENN

Steve Senn begins his term as the first vice president of The Florida Bar Foundation's board of directors on July 1. He began serving on the board in 2012 and is currently the chair of the investment committee. Steve also serves on the Advisory Committee on Local Rules for the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida, the Polk Academies Executive Advisory Board, and the Tenth Circuit Pro Bono Committee. He is a past president of the board of directors for Florida Rural Legal Services and the Florida Equal Justice Center. Steve is a three-time recipient of The Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award. He is a Florida Bar Foundation Fellow and a member of the Foundation's Gold Lifetime Giving Society. Steve, a senior shareholder with Peterson & Myers, P.A. in Lakeland, is also an adjunct professor at Florida Southern College, where he teaches an annual Supreme Court seminar. He is being honored with the President's Award for Excellence for his steady and dependable leadership and his willingness to go above and beyond his duties to ensure transitions are seamless. Steve represents the Foundation with the utmost professionalism and his even-keeled approach to challenges is valued. Steve's experience and commitment to public service are a tremendous asset to The Florida Bar Foundation.

PAUL C. DOYLE CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY AWARD

The Paul C. Doyle Children's Advocacy Award honors Paul C. Doyle, founding director of the Foundation's Legal Assistance for the Poor and Law Student Assistance grant programs (1991 - 2013) in recognition of his commitment to high-quality legal representation of Florida's low-income children. The award recognizes and encourages systemic legal advocacy on behalf of low-income children by Children's Legal Services grantees.

Winner Americans for Immigrant Justice

In 2018, thousands of children were separated from their parents at the border and sent to detention centers. AIJ helped more than 100 children reunite with their families and represented them in their immigration cases.

First runner-up Florida State University College of Law Public Interest Law Center Children's Advocacy Clinic

The Human Trafficking and Exploitation Law Project (HELP) aims to stop human trafficking, specifically the commercial sexual exploitation of children from the community at large.

COLLEGE OF LAW
FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Second runner-up..... University of Miami School of Law Children & Youth Law Clinic

This collaboration between three Miami Law Clinics and other advocates resulted in the Florida Supreme Court's decision unanimously holding that the intent of a child to seek Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) in a private petition for dependency is not a basis to summarily deny the petition.

CARLTON FIELDS

Carlton Fields is pleased to sponsor the Paul C. Doyle Advocacy Award at the 43rd Annual Florida Bar Foundation Medal of Honor dinner.

We congratulate this year's
Medal of Honor Award recipients
Michael A. Bedke, Esq., and Richard C. Milstein, Esq., for their pro bono work and longstanding leadership to improve access to justice for all Floridians.

Richard C. Milstein, Esq.

Recipient of the 2019 Medal of Honor Award for a Lawyer

We are three floors of governmental lawyers, three blocks from the capitol building of what will soon become the Nation's third most populous state. From our single office in Tallahassee, we serve clients throughout the Southeast and from the Statehouse to the White House, and from County Court to the U.S. Supreme Court. Our clients include the local entrepreneur hoping to start a business, the Fortune 500 company wanting to do business in Florida, and the local government hoping to navigate the state and federal regulatory maze.

Congratulations

DLA Piper joins The Florida Bar Foundation in congratulating our friend and partner, Michael Bedke, who is the recipient of its Medal of Honor Award. This award recognizes Mike's exemplary pro bono work, including his leadership on behalf of disaster victims, survivors of domestic violence and veterans.

Congratulations to Mike for this well-deserved honor.

THE ENDOWMENT

In 1991, the Foundation established The Florida Bar Foundation Endowment Trust into which Fellows' pledges and other contributions are deposited as a permanent source of support for all of the Foundation's charitable purposes. The Endowment is a 501(c)(3) supporting organization to the Foundation. Endowment trustees are past Foundation presidents.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of The Florida Bar Foundation, a charitable organization established in 1956 by The Florida Bar Board of Governors and the Florida Supreme Court, is to provide greater access to justice.

Through strategic grantmaking, the Foundation funds local and statewide civil legal aid organizations and projects to improve the administration of justice and increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the legal aid delivery system. The Foundation engages in catalytic philanthropy by investing in training, technology, technical assistance, assessment and capacity-building for legal aid and works to develop and expand innovative pro bono initiatives.

While principal support for the Foundation's charitable activities comes from the Interest on Trust Accounts (IOTA) Program implemented by the Florida Supreme Court in 1981, Foundation grants also are supported by gifts from attorneys, law firms, corporations, foundations and other individuals.

We offer help, but we also count on yours.
